

The Vote Song

low G

Tune: 'If You're Happy and You Know It, Clap Your Hands'; 1.5 min.

Lyrics: The Raging Grannies ... and Their Friends of Westchester County NY

If you can't be bothered voting think again. [CLAP 2X]

If you can't be bothered voting think again. [CLAP 2X]

If you can't be bothered voting, [PAUSE]

Keep in mind and it's worth noting,

That the ones who got us in this mess might win.

If you can't be bothered sorting who is who, [CLAP 2X]

If you can't be bothered sorting what is what, [CLAP 2X]

If you don't take care to weigh [PAUSE]

Each new promise of the day,

Then prepare to live with what they choose to do.

If you can't be bothered calling don't complain. [CLAP 2X]

If you can't be bothered writing don't complain. [CLAP 2X]

A politician's not a saint. [PAUSE]

Sometimes honest folks they ain't. [LOUD & SLOW]

If you can't be bothered voting, don't complain.

Oh democracy's a nuisance you might say. [CLAP 2X]

We would NOT prefer it be another way. [CLAP 2X]

Yes, we would always choose it.

We must use it or we lose it.

So vote! And you will always have a say!

[SPOKEN, voice 1] So call! ...

[SPOKEN, voice 2] Write! ...

[SPOKEN, all] Vote! ...

And you will always have a say!
